I've got a message for a rethard and a reason to unwine
I've got solution for a problem I've got ember in my eyes
I've got a handcuff and a wire I've got method to untie I've got a cover for a coffin and the tool to beat you blind

I'm your asylum when you slide in acid rain
And I've got wings to carry you gently away

Still unrivaled, still undead as you can keep it torn apart
And now you toast in fire 'cause it got yourself a broken heart
I can stuff your pocket, Drugs and pills that I gained yesterday
I am an animal on road and I can fuck you off unshamed

Get away before I sharp my razorblade Getting high and shoot one more pilot from a plane Grab a mind absorb the thought that it contains Tune the sun with a remote inside my brain
