What happens when life breaks down
There's systemic contradiction
It's projecting self justify excusing, accusing Denying well I don't have a problem
There's nothing wrong with me
So it's not me, it must be you
Or it must be them, or it must be him
Trouble doesn't come from nowhere
Your weakness is a perfect match

Trouble in my life workign for a cause
Chasing my ambitions givin in my all How you're supposed to live your own feet off the ground
When the whole damn world still tryin to bring you down
Tryin to bring you down, tryin to bring you down
The whole damn world still tryin to bring you down
Tryin to bring you down, tryin to bring you down
Ohhh

And dance to me home beat loving being me
Broke out the mounts and the causing society
I'm on a mission just wait and see
Fuck what you told me, love and living free
Love and living free, love and living free
I said fuck what you told me, love and living free
Love and living free, love and living free
Ohh

Yes said there's something out here
Tryin to take a heart on me
Can't turn me down, cuffin chain my feet
Just skies above this town baby
Just prepare 'cause I'm about to get the whole world
But don't... and I know what you do, I'm not afraid to you
Someone looks to me ohh

Fear not, oh yes tonight
My love, fear not

My love I got you
Fear not, uhh I got you
I got you
