I don't know what I wanna say
I got lost along the way
Felt like there was so much time
Now I know that was a lie

Oh Oh Oh Oh
Oh Oh Oh Oh

The city sleeps as I pass through
Sometimes I wish that I was you
Those perfect lives; a sweet charade
Convince myself I'm not afraid to Go home and settle down
The faces, places, familiar sounds

This might be good
This might be right for me
Misunderstood
I've run for eternity

Faces, places, familiar sounds

This might be good
This might be right for me
Misunderstood
I've run for eternity

Yeah... this might be good
