Martin-Meskell

Well, I almost called you this evenin'
Just to say things aren't what they seem
But a one-night stand wound up stealin'
Every one of my dreams
Now it's three a.m. in the morning
And a woman's best be at home
I'm afraid the sun's gonna catch me now
On a street all alone

Now I'm hearin' my heart talkin'
Sayin' that I'm foolish just to keep walkin' away
I thought that I could forget you
But I keep on day after day
Hearin' my heart talkin'
Hearin' my heart talkin'
Every time I'm thinkin' of you

All the big time plans I was sure of
Left me standin' here in the dawn
As the sidewalk pools at the streetlight
Well, I need it all
Well, I try my best not to wonder
If you've still been thinkin' of me
But you fill my mind like an old song
Bittersweet melody

Now I'm hearin' my heart talkin'
Sayin' that I'm foolish just to keep walkin' away
I thought that I could forget you
But I keep on day after day
Hearin' my heart talkin'
Hearin' my heart talkin'
I'm hearin' my heart talkin'
Every time I'm thinkin' of you

O-oh, I can't escape this feelin'
When the night starts turnin' to day

Now I'm hearin' my heart talkin'

Sayin' that I'm foolish just to keep walkin' away
I thought that I could forget you
But I keep on day after day
Hearin' my heart talkin'
Hearin' my heart talkin'
I'm hearin' my heart talkin'
Every time I'm thinkin' of you

Now I'm hearin' my heart talkin'
Every time I'm thinkin' of you

Woah, I'm hearin' my heart talkin'
Every time I'm thinkin' of you

(repeat and fade)
