I'm looking for blue eyes
Has anyone seen him
Don't you tell me
He gave up on me
I'm looking for blue eyes
I've got to find him
Cause something tells me
He's looking for me

There was a time when blue eyes said he'd love no other
His one and only love he swore I'd be
There was a time when his blue eyes saw clearer than mine did
Storms and rain, tears and pain, bring me back his way

Looking for blue eyes
Has anyone seen him
No don't you tell me
He gave up on me
I'm looking for blue eyes
I've got to find him
Cause something tells me
He's looking for me

I'm looking for blue eyes
Has anyone seen him
