One that i chose is few i always do what i'm supposed to do
Count on me, down by 3 to always come through
When the, pressure is on, the weather is storm Shoot up whole blocks and obstacles they set before us
It's time ta fast forward the time the future is now,
Hate my flow u bitch still love my style
Born weed up in the concrete i'm claiming my spot
