every God box in town seems to leave me feeling down no one wants to socialize with the man with sad eyes

CLIMB

the priestess wants a female pope the young ones think i'm a dope

CHORUS

so i go church-hopping faith to faith, town to town i go church-hopping somewhere i won't be put down there's a church where love grows The People's Church in Cocoa next time i have gasoline i'll drive up there

meanwhile at The Vineyard i stare at legs to flirt

CHORUS

there is love somewhere
there is love somewhere to find talk to me, i'm losing my mind

CHORUS 2x
