I was made for you baby
I was made for you
I was made for you sweet baby
I was made for you

In the morning light
When I just woke up missing you by my side
I just can't control
I feel in my soul
boy I have to show

I wish I could hide what is deep inside
We don't have to keep this lie
Boy you take my breath
I need you so bad
And there's nothing I can compare
If you trust in me, like I trust in you

Embrace me through the night
I know that we'll be fine
You should take me in your arms
(like there's no tomorrow)
Kiss me on sunrise
I promise that you'll be mine
Till the end of time, till the end of time

Why can't you see
You belong to me
I wish you were here forever
I'm always thinking of you
In everything that I do
The time is now or never

You don't have to hide
What is deep inside
Cuz I need you by my side
I will take your hand
For you'll be there
And there's nothing we can compare
Can I count on you, like you count on me?
