this ain't over yet
we can be in love again

something is going wrong, dear
but this ain't over yet gimme one more try
all your heart is true to me
is what you said
for all that you just proved to me that I don't really know you

you can make this right again

gimme me one more try

we can be in love
