No more dreams to fulfill " in this life that holds still
" I have lost the light in my life Why can't I see " it was all a dream " have I lived in a lie " that I made myself

All the lies behind my smiles " they say that true love never dies... but you will...
All that we shared feels like a lie " I wish that I could turn back time " to the point when it all was fine

Let me be a part of this dream " all that we used to be I am all alone " when it all falls apart " no one to catch when I fall All the dreams have faded away " in a world where love has ceased to exist Take my heart and let me die " just take my heart but let me die
