V 1:

You tried to play with my mind, play me like a fool
You wanted to get with me, but that couldn't be
You wanted to have my heart so you could break it
It would've torn me apart, but you couldn't take it
Cause that is not in the plan, that will not take place
You might as well understand by the look on my face
There is someone who loves me, & will always be He's the truth & the life, He has set me free

CHORUS:

He's the one & the only
He's the one that showed me
I can depend on Him, in my heart of hearts
He will stand the test of time, over any otherline
I know he's the best in my heart of hearts

V 2:

So many people around tried turn me away
But I know that I have found, I will always stay Right beside the One who has changed my life
Shining bright as the sun is His face to mine

BRIDGE:

You cannot turn me away from the One that I need most
I've decided long before, there's no need for me to search anymore
