What you don't know can lead you to the extremes
Shunning help though you feel a need
You fear to be caught limping and you lose your place
And leaning on the everlasting arms is not your taste

Maybe you've heard those stories, laughed at what you saw on TV
Or felt disgust as He was used an excuse for bigotry
But I've got to tell you, that's not what it's all about
'Cause the truth I know will turn you around

If you really knew
You would change your mind
If you knew the God I know
You would have the time

If you take a chance
I know you will find
Everything you need in love of another kind

I too have been hurt by those who claimed to show the way
It was crazy, their two faces like night and day
But you don't stop believing 'cause you once been burned
In everything there's a lesson learned, oh, yeah yeah

Man is imperfect, there is just one perfect soul
So much more loving than than one that you've been shown
How long is it gonna take for you to realize?
I wish that you would open your eyes

If you really knew
You would change your mind
If you knew the God I know
You would have the time

If you take a chance
I know you will find
Everything you need in love of another kind

I apologize to you on behalf of the untrue Because the God I know would never do the things they do
Mercy and compassion on the right and on the left
Can you give anymore than your last breath?
Oh, too hard to see, well, put your mind aside
And stop using fear to hide behind

If you really knew
You would change your mind
If you knew the God I know
You would have the time

If you take a chance
I know you will find
Everything you need in love of another kind

If you really knew
You would change your mind
If you knew the God I know
You would have the time

If you take a chance
I know you will find
Everything you need in love
Everything you need in love of another kind

Love of another kind

God's love is enough for you
And it's waiting if you only
God's love is enough for you
And it's waiting if you only

And it's waiting if you only knew
God's love is enough for you
And it's waiting
