This one right here
This is to let everybody know
That you gotta know who you are
And you gotta know whose you are Hey, I know whose I am
By the way
Baby boy wait a second hear me out
You don't know what you're talking about
Don't know me or how I roll
Child of the king your flossin don't appeal to me
Im not impressed with shopping sprees
Man your game ain't worth my soul
(Hey boy) I know what you're looking for and it's ain't your night
(Hey boy) you've got your eyes on me, but Ive got my eyes on high
(Hey boy) don't you know the difference is in the life Ive found
(Hey boy) took one chance it turned my life around
Its just the way he loves me
Its just the way he talks to me
Its just the way he moves me
Its just the way he sets me free
Its just the way he loves me
Its just the way he talks to me
Its just the way he moves me
Its just the way he sets me free
Baby girl I see it from a mile away
Youre lost and you can't find your way Trying to find just who you are
You need to know
Youre worth more than your weight in gold
But gotta let God take control
Truly be a shining star (Hey girl) I know what you're looking for you're not looking right
(Hey girl) you've got your eyes on everything but on the most high (Hey girl) hear me when I say the difference is in the life Ive found
(Hey girl) take one chance he'll turn your life around
Its just the way he loves me

Its just the way he talks to me
Its just the way he moves me
Its just the way he sets me free
Its just the way he loves me
Its just the way he talks to me
Its just the way he moves me
Its just the way he sets me free
Ive never been so happy (repeat)
