I know you walk around this life without hope
Just tryin' to figure out a way you can cope, well
You do so many things to escape your fears
That you will never make it
You'll always have to fake being happy

I know the truth you can believe it or not
There's a way out of this way of living
But your trust must be giving willingly
Someone to rescue you from all your disgrace
Who will show you all his mercy, love and grace

More than you know
More than you could ever dream
There's so much more
Waiting for you than it seems if you'll only believe

I know you wonder what your life's all about
When it comes to your future, you have your doubts
There's only one who can make you feel secure
Who will lead you through this life
Where you'll spend eternity you can be sure

You think the only heaven you'll ever know
Is the little bit of blue sky you see when your troubles
Seem to go for a little while
There's a lasting pleasure, a fuller measure of joy and peace
When you look inside and know you've been set free

More than you know
More than you could ever dream
There's so much more
Waiting for you than it seems if you'll only believe

You think the only heaven you'll ever know
Is the little bit of blue sky you see when your troubles
Seem to go for a little while
There's a lasting pleasure, a fuller measure of joy and peace
When you look inside and know you've been set free, free

More than you know
More than you could ever dream
There's so much more
Waiting for you than it seems if you'll only believe

More than you know
More than you could ever dream
There's so much more
Waiting for you

If you just let it go
If you just let it go
It's waiting just for you
If you open up your eyes
If you realize, it's waitin' for you
