Chorus:

Why is that smile upon your face
When it's such a rainy day
Why are you so happy?
What do you know that I don't know?
I wish I did but aint been told
So tell me, what's your secret?
I met a girl the other day at the supermarket
Ringing up all of my things
She had the strangest look upon her face
Wish you could have been there
Just to see the way she looked at me
Thought I must look crazy something out of place
But paid it no attention
Just kept going with my business
I looked up because she stepped into my space
Saw pain in her eyes
Her question took me by surprise she said
I didn't have the faintest clue where to begin So I asked some questions (just to see what I was dealing with)
She told me where she was and where it was she'd been
What an awful tale life hadnt done her well
She had thoughts of leaving

Bridge:

(Before you go) let me tell my story
(Once like you, you know) all guts and no glory
(But now I have joy) the reason why
Whos in my life
That is why you're asking me
See the moral of the story is the whole worlds watching you
So be careful what you say and be careful what you do Never know when it will be your time to show someone the way
So be a guiding light and shine so they'll say
