Hey I could use somebody, no not just anybody
And put the roof down; drop the top on my Bougotti I know I'm talking crazy, I was thinking maybe you just be my Beyonce & I can be your Jay Z Pull up to the drive way, open the door you smiling I think I got you thinking I'm the one you should be dialing Blackberys, Iphones you be calling me Sprint to the Nextal tell them Altel we've been good ever since

Ever since x5
Boy you know you got my love, love
Boy you know you got my love, love
Boy you know you got my love, love, love, love, love Boy you know you got my love, love, x2

Lets leave the lights on, even if it's the night time Cause long as I'm with you then I'm knowing that it's the right time Bright lines, I rhyme never kill my vibe You know I'm shining in the dark and you might bark But I just bite, we're not compatible, doesn't matter though I want you front row every show
And even though I got no time to spend I got some money to blow, I keep some extra O's, keep ya necklace froze til the bracelet on your wrist And the time I spend with you, been feeling good ever since

(Chorus)

Yeah and I'm feeling fine,uh, my conscience mind Lost inside you, mesmerized me I just don't what's the signs
Uh, Mel Gibson flow, blast my love no stereo
And you are quite a spectacle I know you're a star
So I'm just shooting for the moon
And wave to Weezy on Mars
And if you stay with me in June

Well, in July I want March And March I'm back like to the groupies who were there from the start I mean if life they say is short, then we gon live life at large
So tell me now, shout it out, yeah, about how much you love it I'm falling back into reality, my dreams never haunted
With you right by my side, shot gun Bonnie and Clyde In the front seat doing it live, like Bill O' before his prime Take ya time, cause I'm never gonna ever leave you behind
And if we fall, right to the ground, cause gravity gon bring us down Promise me you'll stay around, or I'm like Ben Affleck out that town
