Verse 1

He was born in one of the years
But I bet that it was never a good one
His mother probably dropped him on his head

He grew up and spent most of his youth
In a prison cell youâ€™ll never believe it
Surprisingly he never wound up dead

Verse 2

He grew up in one of the days
And I bet that it was never a great one
Someone probably smashed him in the face

He grew up and spent most of his life
In a fight
So you sit here and wonder
If heâ€™s ever gonna change his ways
