Verse 1:

Twisted and bent out of shape
We might need a change of direction
It's all depending, I have it worked out
My brothers are about for some action

Chorus:

Back against the wall
Face all ... to fall
Ain't it strange how the other half live?
Ain't it strange how the other half live?

Verse 2:

Quit condescending, it's driving me mad
Like you're looking for some kind of reaction
No mediocrity with the circus in town
Like you're waiting for the crowd to break open

Chorus:

Back against the wall
Face all ... to fall
Ain't it strange how the other half live?
Ain't it strange how the other half live?

Give it, give it, give it
You gotta give it some time
You gotta give it some time
Before you try to give up

Give it, give it, give it
You gotta give it some time
You gotta give it some time
Before you try to give up

Give it, give it, give it
You gotta give it some time
You gotta give it some time
Before you try to give up

Give it, give it, give it
You gotta give it some time

You gotta give it some time
Before you try to give up
