An ambush set to me,
that was all the plan.
And all I've tried to be,
was a rightful man.

Fifty nights and days,
hiding with my gun.
Find the different ways,
to seek the fat old sun.

I came back to take my hat,
But all I needed wasn't that.

At last I climbed the knoll,
it was so hard to climb.
But then I kissed the soil,
and it was alright.

I came back to take my hat,
But all I needed wasn't that.

Now I don't want to see what's inside the dusk,
no I don't want to see behind the sun.
Let me know what do you think about this game,
is it all so difficult to play?
