Hey, do you really know?
Would you care about?
Do you care if you fade away?
I can't relate to losing faith

Losing you, I feel afraid
I see your pain
I'm so ashamed
To see your face

I just needed to tell you
I just can't seem to cry
I just know that I see you
Confused and criticised

And it wonder why Do you believe in a dream that you can stay in my mind?
And I wait for the day you say hello, and I'll say goodbye
To the dream, to the dream, to the dream, to the dream
