Can you show me something beautiful?
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful

Can you show me something beautiful?
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful

Do you feel temperature's rising?
Do you see flashes of lighting?
So brightly
Do you know who
Who would love to love you?
I do
Can you let your worried mind move?

Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful

Do you see the colors changing?
Can you feel them rearranging?
Amazing
Do you know who
Who would love to love you?
I do
Can you feel the things that I do?

When the push comes to show
When the world is hiding love
And is rading and cold
When the world has grown dull

Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Show me something beautiful

Show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?

Can you show me something beautiful?
I said beautiful
Show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Show me something beautiful
Show me something beautiful
Can you show me something beautiful?
Beautiful, beautiful
