(Chorus)

Relationship's getting kind of rough Don't let them turn you away from love
'Cause you're more than capable of moving onto somebody else
And, that's for sure, don't be insecure (insecure)
I can be your cure 'cause your....
Your beautiful (Aye), Your beautiful (Girl)
Your beautiful (Aye), Your beautiful (Girl)
Your beautiful (Aye), Your beautiful Gotta get your attention, 'cause i just wanna mention
Your Beautiful

(Verse 1)

Do he often tell you that you're beautiful?
Yeah girl I see it and you probably don't believe it But you're nothing like the usual Yeah, and you say that you're prettier with that make-up on
But I prefer that it's off because your beauty is oh so natural so...
So show it off, show it off, baby gon' work it
You the next top model, work that stage, yeah, gon' murk it
Pretty hair, smooth skin, and your body is perfect Yeah, babe your body is perfect, but um...
But just don't listen to these other guys They'll go through so many tries, tryna get up in your thies
But wait... But see all I'm asking for is a conversation I know you're look to go the right way, well T. Bo your destination

(Chorus)

(Verse 2)

Girl you don't need no champagne, just to ease your pain
Or that blunt smoke in your brain, hoping things won't be the same
Yeah, but see nothing's gonna change Your problems still gon' remain, if you remain to play his games

See, he push you to the side, but you can be my main
And he always put you down, ain't it about time for a change?

You haven't left him 'cause you love him

But can you honestly say that he loving you back?

I don't see how when he always creeping behind your back

Not my opinion girl, this is a well-known fact

Y'all been together for this long, how y'all putting up with that?

But come here girl, let me wipe your tears girl

Take you from all your fears and just know that I am here...

(Chorus)

Relationship's getting kind of rough
