Bringing the world back
Bringing the world back
Bringing the world back home

Ever find you're walking down a one way road no one does
All your bridges are burned and from the ashes you just got rise, upbringing the world, just bringing the world
And just remember when the night seems so long
The darkest hour is just before dawn

If you got a dream, you won't dream alone
'Cause we're in this together
Whether we stand or fall, make it to the sun
Bringing of the dawn
And I know that I will dream on my own
'Cause I'm bringing the world back home

You better be ready when destiny comes
You are a long way from home from where you belong

Such a long journey destinations are known
But you got to be strong, yeah, you got to be strong
And just remember when no hope has come
The darkest hour is just before dawn

If you got a dream, you won't dream alone
'Cause we're in this together
Whether we stand or fall, make it to the sun
Bringing of the dawn
And I know that I will dream on my own
'Cause I'm bringing the world back home

Bringin' the world back home
Bringin' the world back
Bringin' the world back home
Yeah

Bringin' the world back home
Bringin' the world back
Bringin' the world back home

Bringin' the world back home

And just remember when no hope has come
The darkest hour is just before dawn

If you got a dream, you won't dream alone
'Cause we're in this together
Whether we stand or fall, make it to the sun
Bringing of the dawn
And I know that I will dream on my own
'Cause I'm bringing the world back home
