I twist in the dark
Another girl, another spark
But I can't, forget about you
In the glow, I don't know
I would stand, outside your room
We'd wait till, your mom went to sleep
And we'd watch the stars, light up your street

We were young, oh, we were scared
We were wild and unprepared, to say goodbye
But things have a way, of changing
We were young, oh, life was new
We were wild, and I was scared of losing you
Cause hearts have a way, of breaking
Oh and, love has a way of fading

We drive through our town
When the sun was going down
And life was unreal, but it was true
In the haze of those days
Before time stole you away
Even then, I think I knew
That I would grow up, without you

We were young, oh, we were scared
We were wild and unprepared, to say goodbye
But things have a way, of changing
We were young, oh, life was new
We were wild, and I was scared of losing you
Cause hearts have a way, of breaking
Oh and, love has a way of fading

I can't remember, the things that I wanted
They're all blank to me, I don't know, I've forgotten
But you are still there, kicking rocks down our old street
Your mom waves goodbye, and you're there in the front seat

We were young, oh, we were scared
We were wild and unprepared, to say goodbye
But let's have this way, of swaying
We were young, oh, life was new

We were wild, but I was crazier for you
My heart has this way, of aching
Well the, love has its way of fading
