We've been looking for luck in all the wrong places
It feels like it's all gone home I'm holding on tight because I don't know what'll happen
The second that I let go

The evening's here
and the snow it falls
I keep asking myself
why I didn't call
Because now you're gone
It's true that Life's too short
To worry about the little things

Sometimes I feel like I'm crazy and the world is right on top of me It's hard to come up for air I look in your eyes and see the future right in front of me I don't wanna fuck it up

The evening's here
and the snow it falls
I keep asking myself
why I didn't call
Because now you're gone
It's true that Life's too short
To worry about the little things

My friends are here right by my side I got a girl that I love it's a beautiful life I fish with my brother, laugh with my mother,
My sister's the happiest girl that I know
