You're living a lie
you we're honest
you said that
but i only heard
what i wanted to hear I'm walking away
but you know that I'll come back
I'm addicted to this
I can't disappear

Remember the times that you walked out my door
And that was the end Til you came back for more Cause when you're around I can't fight
the connection
and that's not the way that you want it to be...

You said the lie was in your soul You feel connected to it all I tried to walk away, but I can never change
Follow the rabbit down the hole

I'm laying awake
every night
and I wonder
are you alone
are you thinking of me I wanted to call and I wanted to hear those things that you say when we're all alone

Remember the times that I walked out your door
And that was the end
Til I came back for more Cause when I'm around You can't fight
the connection

you want it to be...

you wanted
to see me to come back You're in my head again
the fallout
infected
my judgement
the faster
your movement
my eyes blur
we suffer connected
forever
