I can't believe I believed you all this time and you hurt me this way you seemed so cool and I thought you were so real now I'm thinking your so fake

In a matter of time how could I be so blind to your cold ways you played the way that feel you did'nt see how I feel that was never okay

Chorus- Your just a Filthy Liar I don't care what you say
You just took things one step higher
I hope your glad you got your way Things were better before you came along and hurt me to get your way
Your Just a Filthy Liar and things will never be the same

I'm sitting here in this chair all alone thinking about what you did to me It's just a matter of time before you'll move on and completely forget about me in this song I can say what I wanted to say when you did what you did to me that was never okay you should be so ashamed but I know your not sorry

Repeat Chorus

why dont you tell me this was your mouth on those lips really worth this

Repeat Chorus

You Filthy Liar I don't care what you say
You just took things one step higher
I hope your glad you got your way
Things were better before you came along
and hurt me to get your way
Your Just a Filthy Liar and things will never be the same Thats never gonna change
