You cross the path and don't look back to wonder
If I'm going under without you
And when I felt the world inside me crumble
I knew that she was trouble, yeah I knew

CHORUS

Why am I crying
I was the one who said goodbye
Why am I sighing
I didn't want her in my life
Why am I crying
Couldn't I let her go this time
Whether it's wrong, whether it's right
I was the one who said goodbye so why am I crying

The glances shared between us never linger
I'm wrapped around her finger, like a kiss
Now all we have is ashes of the future
I never meant to lose her, not like this

BRIDGE

She's taken me away from now and I'm
Trying to figure this out somehow and I
I'm falling between
Yeah she's taken me away from now and I'm
Trying to figure this out somehow and I
Don't know what it means
