Let's write a song

Let's write a song that the world will sing along to

Bad day and your boy's been gettin' ya down ya think he's never gonna come around and maybe you're right so you tell him everything you need to say ya say you're gonna run away instead you leave his sight

somethin', somethin' in the air you don't have to care
about tonight
it's alright
Someone is waiting for you out there in the meantime don't care
it's alright

When you're thtinkin' your mind might explode you never could carry such a load and after all this your friends tell you you're too upset you tell 'em never to get into it just give it a rest

it's alright
Someone is waiting for you out there
it's alright

lalalalalalala
lalalalalalala
lalalala la-la la-la

shout it loud and clear so the neighbors gonna hear you let's do a dance that is outta sight make it simple make it easy we'll be doin' it all night

it's alright
it's alright
Â it's alright, it's alright, it's alright- it's alright
