You softly asked with your head in my lap
If i could ever love you forever perhaps and then you laughed and then you sighed wondered allowed why why i ever wasted time with you (x2)

(Chorus)
well red yellow blue my azure cuckoo just who do you think that I am my azure cuckoo, I'm with you
I sure ain't yellow or red

In times gone by I've told many lies While looking my victims right in the eye
I've walked many roads
With no place to go
But to lie on my side and moan for my home

And when the flood came It came swift and fast and there was no way that i could ever last so I hid 'neath the rouge of the sea smoking booze Until out of my nose
My conscious did flow into a whirl
Of the lonely man's cove (x2)

(Chorus!)
well red yellow blue my azure cuckoo
just who do you think that I am
my azure cuckoo, I'm with you

I sure ain't yellow or red
