Welcome to you're full of shit 101
This is a crash course for all the fortunate ones Now there will be no searching for reason so kiss your ass goodbye
Step down, I'm fucking sick of it all We can fight our way out of the light, we can climb out of hell one inch at A time

This is your new resolution
A last chance to redeem your treason
Your glory days die
This is reality but not the one you see All the fake smiles hiding the truth inside you and all of your wretched
Ways
Now will pay the ultimate price

Scum of the earth
You will suffer eternal demise Feel these words burn as they come one by one straight into your black Heart
Someday a real way will come and wash the scum from the streets
There's no handouts when your whole world is drowning in a river of greed

So how the fuck does it feel?
How does it feel to be cast out and all alone?
The more you take the less you give It's all because in the end you're all the same Wheres your fortune and fame?
Watch it fading away
Wheres your fortune and fame?
It's fading away
Scum of the earth, you will suffer eternal demise

To the highest mountain I will climb just to throw you off
and say goodbye
One last time

To the highest mountain I will climb just to throw you off
and say goodbye
One last time
