"Just for Me"

In the beginning there was just You
You and only You
Tell me where You lonely
I can't help but wonder is that why the ocean's blue?

You said, "Let there be light"
And the night became day
You said, "Let there be life"
And that's why I'm here to say

When You hung the stars in the sky and You saw it was good
Was it all just for me
When You showed the sun where to rise and the night where to hide
Was it all just for me

In the beginning there was You and only You
To create a world was something only You could do
You knew my name before You even made the moon
Or the sky above, I'm surrounded by Your love

You said, "Let there be light"
And the night became day
You said, "Let there be life"
And that's why I'm here today

When You hung the stars in the sky and You saw it was good
Was it all just for me
When You showed the sun where to rise and the night where to hide
Was it all just for me

After all that You have done there's no way I can deserve You
There's no way I can be the one to bring me closer to You
You could have called on angels, but You chose to face the tree
I can't believe You did it for me

When You hung the stars in the sky and You saw it was good
Was it all just for me
When You showed the sun where to rise and the night where to hide
Was it all just for me, was it all just for me
