How many years ago was it we met...
And lasted till now?
How many tears ago was it?
And yet, weâ€™ve passed it somehow
This test of a lifetime
Staying afloat when things go wrong
Now in the best of my life Iâ€™m
Forgetting the notes but not the song.
I donâ€™t remember the moments you might want me to
Or see you with a sentimental eye
I donâ€™t remember the day I fell in love with you
But Iâ€™ll always remember why.

How many years from now will I
Still be the light in your eye?
Youâ€™ll be the light in mine till I
Canâ€™t see the sun or the sky
And there, even then, Love
No matter what else I canâ€™t recall
No matter the where or the when, Love
Iâ€™ll know that I loved you with my all
I donâ€™t remember the things we used to say or do
To make the rainy days go by
I donâ€™t remember the day I fell in love with you
But Iâ€™ll always remember why.
Till the end of my life
Iâ€™ll remember why.
