Come on, you can do it
Come on, you can do it

Hello I'm leaving my demon
Hello I'm saying goodbye to him
Bye, bye old friend
And if my life was built on dreaming
Then I was but a fool

Today, the sun will set in east
Hell will catch a cold
And I'm down here on my knees
Come on and take me home
As you love me, baby trust this
On a day like this, fools like me can change

Hello I'm leaving my reasons
Hello they never were good to me
Bye, bye old friends
I kept on guessing my own feelings
And I was but a fool

Today, the sun will set in east
Hell will catch a cold
And I'm down here on my knees
Come on and take me home
As you love me, baby trust this
On a day like this, fools like me can change

And You have trusting eyes like me my love
Though you've seen a million things
We travel different roads
But we are still the same
We are still the same
