"In The Dirt"

She is somewhere in the dirt
Buried in my town
And my heart will never burn
Out of time

And the blood keep running cold
The crack can never close
And I'm growing really old
In my mind

I resent all the pain
I take back every stupid word I said
It wasn't really me
How do I feel
All messed up
But common who is not

I soak up every rain
Checking memories when time flies overhead
So blinded I agree
How do I feel
All messed up
But common who is not

Guess our whole life's meant to be
A thing that one should learn
If it's sorrow that I feel
No return

And the world is still alive
Breathing heavily
All the dreams that I revive
Are ecstasy
