Nobody told me
So it took a little time
I saw God in everyone
But in the end
My thoughts kept rolling through my mind

And I feel
Cause I'm real
It's a steal

Somehow I love these tears run dry
Sometime soon you will change
I keep talking to myself
Making promises again
Saying to myself
That sometime soon
Things will change

Could have played in differently
Could have moved another way
But there's no point to looking back
Change the colours, religion
Listen to what I say

And I feel
Cause I'm real
It's a steal

Somehow I love these tears run dry
Sometime soon you will change
I keep talking to myself
Making promises again
Saying to myself
That sometime soon
Things will change
