Like Satyricon
Pantheon at war of the worlds
Like a paragon
The galaxy of dreams we observe.
Through a hundred thousand years of light
A message to our globe
Astronomy moves endlessly
Through eyes of the probe

On a starry night
Construction of a dream in a dream
From my satellite watching the scene

Like Satyricon
The matter of the cold in the dark
Like a paragon
Our galaxy contracts at the heart
Dance a million billion stars away
A mission we defend
Cosmology the mystery of rays
Heaven sent

On a starry night
Construction of a dream in a dream
From my satellite watching the scene

Like Satyricon
The matter of the cold in the dark,
Like a paragon straight from the heart
Like Satyricon
Pantheon at war of the worlds
Like a paragon

The galaxy of dreams we observe
Like a Pantheon stars I observe
