When i stand and call you
There's a sense in my heart that grows every moment
When i wait for your dreams
There's a pain in my mind that grows every moment
They can destroy me, i can feel it
They can break me, i can hear it

Fear hurts me
Pain influenced my heart
Love rapes me
The moon heard my sound x2

I can't tell you why my hands were cold
I can't see your face while my soul was tired
My heart is going where sunset is glowing
My heart is going where sunshine is eternal

Fear hurts me
Pain influenced my heart
Love rapes me
The moon heard my sound x2
