So tired, so tired of here
So numb, so close to edge
Standing on my way
Along the broken bridge
Tears on my face are frozen
Just like a silent ocean

It's gripping in love
I wanna feel your cold breath
Take me to the sky
Upon the lonely gray forest x2
We're far searching for the storm
Our souls became hard like stone
Tomorrow sun will hide away
It's a place of sorrow
We're sentenced to stay

It's gripping in love
I wanna feel your cold breath
Take me to the sky
Upon the lonely gray forest x2
