

Over It "Avalanche"

Won't we stick it out
This mile of doubt or will we
Fold up and disappear
A lullaby that lost its soul

Don't think our time is up
This is going nowhere, nowhere
Don't think our due is done
But a disaster don't care, don't care

When did we sell ourselves into this avalanche?
Can't outlast the cold
Were we meant to get caught in this avalanche?
Can't we lay down and die?

Damn right it hurts to think that we
Could be so naive,
But you've got your point
If we can't pay cash we owe you pity

Don't think our time is up
This is going nowhere, nowhere
Don't think our due is done
But a disaster don't care, don't care

When did we sell ourselves into this avalanche?
Can't outlast the cold
Were we meant to get caught in this avalanche?
Can't we lay down and die?

How can you stand by
Watchin' your sons slip by?
How can you let us die?
Would you let us lay down and die?

Don't think our time is up
This is going nowhere, nowhere
Don't think that our due is done
But a disaster don't care, don't care

When did we sell ourselves into this avalanche?
Can't outlast the cold

Were we meant to get caught in this avalanche?
Will we lay down under this avalanche?
Were we meant to last?
