

Over It "Limiter"

Sometimes you just have to let go
Start writing off the effort
And can't you just stop pretending?
Could it be that something's changed?
'Cause nothing feels the same to you

Do you imagine that
A world that we just can't understand
Are we messed up?

You be the judge
Now that you'd offered us your trust
No matter what can we teach
Them to mess with us

Let them keep their words
We don't come 'round to cast threats
Or pick up your feet
And pass it around again

Four walls keep closing in on me
I'm drowning in a pool of doubt
I try to recognize these dreams

Before we waste all the space inside
Waste all the space inside
Keep wasting the space inside

Four walls keep closing in on me
I'm drowning in a pool of doubt
I try to recognize these dreams

Before we waste all the space inside my mind
Inside my mind, waste all the space inside my mind
Inside my mind
