I've got a secret, you see
Automatic could never touch her
She beats so clear, I'd give myself to the beat
Just to be hear the sound

She taught me to seek truth in the path
Of her footstep's trace, and I must confess
I love the shape that my mind takes Whenever she is on it, wherever she may be

Everyone wants a proof
Some kind of rule to latch onto
We all wanna peek outside the box
We're all caught up inside staring just trapped inside

We need to see all of our just little thoughts
Racing out of control, then the speed of light
We like the truth, we want nothing but truth
(Nothing but truth)
And nothing but truth

Go ahead, try to find yourself
As a part of every perfect thing, yea
(Nothing but truth)
In the footsteps of harmony
Everyone wants the answer
They're sure will open every question

I wanna give it away
Sometimes I get so blue to see
My friends, with life so close at hand
I get so scared, with eyes wide shut
I'll fail to find hope near to them

If what's concealed tends to reveal itself in time
(Just accept)
It makes no sense to see
They've abide a secret smile

I've got to give it away
When she sends me falling
So I'll sing it again

(Sing it again)

I love the shape it takes when she is on it
(Love the shape it takes when she is on it)
I love the shape it takes when she is on it
So I'll sing it again
