Wrong way on a one way
Street lights llluminate this night
When we're here side by side
Each moment breathes new life

So get right, all that you like
'Cause I know we share more than smiles
And all this down-time gives us reason to confide
Everything I can fit onto one line

Watch the sun set over wasted time
Wish upon a California sky
I think you know this time
I'm through with wasted time
And it may take one last night
What goes around comes back again in time

Should I whisper our secret?
It ain't hard to see, your heart would know
It's never easy to forget mistakes
And afford some room to grow

In a heartbeat, on the heels
Of each soft word to break the quiet
I remember a season I forgot and it fills me up with fire
I'll never fear the night, never fear the night with you
