By the waves that thus outspread
Their lonely days forgot and dead
They're not afraid, not they're not afraid
All the days that you ignored
The price we paid this time it' war
We're not afraid, no we're not afraid
We're not afraid, no we're not afraid of you
We're not afraid, no we're not afraid!

Attack, attack, attack
you're under attack
We'll break your bind

The march of time, your crusade
Will not defy what you enslave
We won't obey no we won't obey
Upon your throne so filled with greed
The time has come for you to see
Your dying day, your dying day
Your dying day, your dying day
adieu
Your dying day, your dying day!

Attack, attack, attack
you're under attack
We'll break your bind
