"Into The Mouth Of Madness"

They triumph in what we've caused
Full on destruction and loss
The truth is buried
I am sorry to say you're right
There's no one left on our side
We must face this

This is our last chance to reach out
Our love is fading, the time is now

They're plotting denying our course
Taking and breaking our force
The truth is waiting
Lies, keeping us lost and confined
Leaving us all undefined
We will face this

This is our last chance to reach out
Our love is fading, the time is now

It's time, our time!
