

Vaudeville "The Messenger"

Visit "The Messenger" on MotoLyrics.com

A broken man who can't rewind
The overture sits on your shelf
I hope one day you will find yourself

Lost in time, love don't cry
I'll be waiting in another life

You are so far away
My heart was left at bay

I'm destined to this lonely land
To ease lost souls from those who ran
Far beyond the open sea
Are broken hearts as lost as me

Lost in time, love don't cry
I'll be waiting in another life

You are so far away
My heart was left at bay
You are so far away
My heart is here to stay
