You can take me out of my hell
You can't take the hell on out of me

Watch me here as I get
But be careful of what you see, oh well

I cut across the waste
Some live and some enshrined
I look into the light of the necroshine

Don't you worry 'bout me
You know I'm doin' line
Basking in the light
Of the necroshine

In the name of all that's sacred
In the name of misery

Watch me here as I turn red
But remember what you see, oh well

I hunger for a taste
To fill me glass with wine
Away from the right into the necroshine

Don't you ever doubt me
As you walk the line
Guided by the light
Of the necroshine

I think that I have been reborn
Just a little better than before
I think I tried to tell myself
That I needed just a little more

They always tried to sell me
Hang me what I couldn't use
Always tried to get a little better
With an offer that I can't refuse

You can take me full of fire
You can take me as you find

Or you can leave me here
Where you gonna see me
Guided by the necroshine

Necroshine
Necroshine
Necroshine

Don't you worry 'bout me
You know I'm doin' line
Basking in the light
Of the necroshine

Don't you ever doubt me
As you walk the line
Guided by the light
Guided by the light
Of the necroshine
