Twisting and turning the incessant burning of night
Never quite learning the truth, wrong versus right Wings that are broken, words never spoken in flight
The future now open, then flashes to hide out of sight

Don't you look so fucking sad, I'll beat you like you never had
Can't hide behind the purity, they'll be no more security God's not here to serve you now, I'm here to give and show you how

Darkness and light
Naked disaster
Only you can save yourself
Save yourself
Make it go faster
Only you can save yourself
Save yourself

Deadly sensation, the cold liquidation unfolds Disintegration, in pure isolation they fold Wheels that are broken, once were outspoken and rolled
The future now open, explode to lose all control

Black ring painted 'round your heart, this is where we're going to start Can't hide behind that riddled soul, I can see right through the holes
God don't want to beat about, let's clean it up and sort it out

Twisting and turning, the incessant burning Twisting and turning, burn, burn, burn, burn
