Give me your love
Give me your money
Give me your soul
Let me have it honey

All lined up, paint 'em red
All lay down, praying me dead
Here you go baby, it's a birthday surprise
Best believe your eyes

Cover them in roses
Cover them in lies
Dress them up in persecution
Best believe your eyes

Nothing you hear
Half of what you're seeing
Make myself clear
Talk about believing

3, 5, 7 and a bottle of blood
All went down to heaven, hell's full of the good
All over baby, here's a big surprise
Best believe your eyes

Cover them in roses
Cover them in lies
Dress them up in persecution
Best believe your eyes

6, 6, 6, 6, 6, 6
Your enemies, your demons
Scream to get out
Beyond the shadow of a doubt

Listen to your spirit scream
Wring your soul out until it's clean
Well beyond the shadow of a doubt

Kiss your purity goodbye
Squeeze you tight so you won't die
All your demons screaming to get out

Hear the footsteps, feel the breath
Good intentions lead to death
All your enemies are looking out

Well beyond the shadow of a doubt
Well beyond the shadow of a doubt

Give me your love
Give me your money
Give me your soul
Let me have it honey

All lined up, paint 'em red
All lay down, praying me dead
Here you go baby, it's a birthday surprise
Best believe your eyes

Cover them in roses
Cover them in lies
Best believe your eyes

6, 6, 6, 6, 6, 6
Your enemies, your demons
Scream to get out
