(Verse 1)

Turn off our phones
We both know it's wrong
We don't belong here
Give me the past, memories last
Aces to take it,
Baby we ain't gotta rush our love
You'll see that i'll submit your needs
When you are ready baby

(Chorus)

What happens in this room, stays in this room girl
I want your body next to mine
But first my love I need your mind

(Verse 2)

What happens in this room, lights out baby
Your legs in the air, your clothes everywhere
Do you remember how, I used to go downtown
Let me remind you that we ain't got to rush our love
You'll see that i'll submit your needs
When you are ready baby

(Chorus)

What happens in this room, stays in this room girl
Cause I've been waiting so long, for you to come over
I want your body next to mine
But first my love I need your mind
Slow it down, let's take our time
What happens in this room

(Verse 3)

If you're not ready, I understand i'll hold you close baby, i'll be loving a friend
Cause there's nothing I wouldn't do
Just to get through to you
That I love you and I'll never do you wrong

(Chorus)

What happens in this room, stays in this room girl
Cause I've been waiting so long, for you to come over
I want your body next to mine

But first my love I need your mind
Slow it down, let's take our time
What happens in this room

What happens in this room, stays in this room girl
Cause I've been waiting so long, for you to come over
I want your body next to mine
But first my love I need your mind
Slow it down, let's take our time
What happens in this room

(Hook)
What happens in this room girl
What happens in this room
Stays here.
